24th February 2010

Fatboys cycle for a cause

The Fatboys are coming soon to a town near you! From March 13th – 19th 2010 an 18 man contingent from the famous SA cycling club will hit the tarmac for a gruelling Melbourne to Adelaide tour.

Sore buttocks and weary muscles won't be just for fun - the boys are raising money for two very deserving charities – the Women's & Children's Hospital Foundation in Adelaide and The Salvation Army.

To get on board and support the boys and their nominated charities, head to everydayhero.com.au and search for Fatboys M2A.

Remember, when you see a Fatboy on the street, give him a wave...and maybe a cushion to sit on. Good on ya lads!
